RICHEs OF UMBRIA

7 days from $1249

Long dismissed as Tuscany's « gentler sister, » the region of Umbria has recently emerged from the shadow of its more famous western neighbor...discover this land whose rolling hills are dotted with castles, fortresses and watchtowers, and whose valleys are laced with countless gleaming rivers and host Italy's largest lake...start your adventure with the town of Assisi, birthplace of St. Francis...walk through this medieval city, famous for its stunning mosaics, set on a hillside, protected by massive walls and left unchanged for centuries...continue on to Spoleto, one of the loveliest Umbrian hill towns, to take a breathtaking sight from its peak and to enjoy this small town that showcases a mixture of dance, theater, opera, music and visual art...end your tour with a stay on Lake Trasimeno near the city of Perugia whose old center bursts with medieval nooks and crannies, ancient houses and alleyways...a land lost in time with traditions and history waiting to be discovered.
