

Scenic Railways of Switzerland

Zurich...St. Moritz...Zermatt...Interlaken...Lucerne... Lugano

11 days/ 10 nights from $2989*

Embark on a memorable journey aboard three of the most awe-inspiring Swiss Scenic Trains...arrive in Zurich, a bustling metropolis with a remarkably quiet and pedestrian-friendly Old Town... travel on to St. Moritz, the world-famous resort nestled 6000 feet among the Alps on the edge of a pristine mountain lake...climb aboard the Glacier Express, a 7 and ½ hour adventure which crosses 291 bridges, 91 tunnels and the 6708-foot-high Oberalp Pass en route to Zermatt...revel in a bird's-eye view of dense forests, eternally snow-capped peaks, rushing streams and centuries-old villages...enjoy hiking, mountain biking, climbing, or summer skiing in car-free Zermatt, with a panoramic view of 38 four-thousand-meter peaks... continue on to the breathtaking beauty of Interlaken, nestled between the lakes of Thun and Brienz...explore the majestic peaks of the Jungfrau region by hiking, river rafting, or biking...dine atop Schilthorn in its wonderful revolving restaurant...take the Golden Pass Line to arrive in the picturesque old town section of Lucerne, which is car-free and small enough to be seen on foot...stop in a café overlooking the famous covered bridge, the "Kapellbrücke"...ride the world's steepest cogwheel train to the top of Mt. Pilatus (6,994 ft)... savor an elegant 3-course kunch on board an historic paddle steamer which plies the blue waters of Lake Lucerne, before continuing across the St. Gotthard mountain range to Lugano...spend your last evening getting to know Lugano's mild Mediterranean climate, Italian influence, and lush vegetation...in the morning, board the train to Zurich for your flight home, or follow your heart's temptation and head to Italy!
